Hello,

The festive season is here, and 'tis the time to be jolly!

As the old saying goes; the gift really is in the giving, and this Christmas, we at Home Centre would like to help you give your guests the time of their lives.

The festive period is all about spending time with loved ones, whether they are friends or family.

In this catalogue, we've curated looks that range from the traditional – think reds, greens and whites – to something a little more contemporary and out of the ordinary, inspired by the wintry months in Europe.

With these looks and decor inspirations, you'll be able to create spaces and host parties that will get everyone into the swing of the Christmas spirit and remember you for the great host you are.

Vintage Red Poinsettia
with Berry Garland

A tall, dark green artificial Christmas tree stands in a room with dark blue paneled walls. The tree is heavily decorated with red and silver ornaments, including baubles, stars, and small figurines. A young girl in a red and black plaid dress is reaching up to touch the branches on the left side. At the base of the tree, several wrapped gifts in red, green, and gold paper are visible. To the right, a young boy in a green sweater sits on a brown leather armchair, looking towards the tree. A window on the far left shows a glimpse of the outdoors.
